Who are Halsbury Travel?

We're a specialist school tour operator and have been arranging school trips for more than 30 years!

Founded by a teacher

Halsbury Travel was founded over 30 years ago, in 1986, by former French teacher Keith Sharkey.

As a teacher he'd seen for himself the enormous educational benefit of school trips for students and he wanted to make it easier for teachers to provide more young people with these exciting learning experiences.

Fully accredited

Our ABTA bond means that school trips booked with us are financially protected, and our flight packages are ATOL protected too.

In addition, we're an Assured Member of the School Travel Forum, which demonstrates our commitment to prioritising the health and safety of our groups.

Plus, we've been awarded the Learning Outside the Classroom Quality Badge, which reflects our commitment to offering activities that are safe and beneficial to learning.

Prioritise health and safety

As an Assured Member of the School Travel Forum, we have taken responsibility for creating and implementing our own thorough Safety Management System, ensuring all reasonable measures are taken to assure clients of a high level of safety on all of our tours.

Specialist help and support

We have many former teachers among us, including in our management team, and we believe that this helps us to fully understand the needs of teachers when arranging school trips.

Each of our trip advisers is a specialist in their subject area and is, therefore, able to provide expert insight into the educational value of every destination, tour and activity for that subject.

Family values

Despite our rapid growth over the past 30 years, we remain fiercely independent. And Keith is still at the helm, supported by his wife, children, and a dynamic and experienced team of school travel specialists.
