Who are Halsbury Music?

Halsbury Music is the music tours division of Halsbury Travel.

Founded by a teacher

Halsbury Travel was founded over 35 years ago, in 1986, by former French teacher Keith Sharkey.

As a teacher he'd seen for himself the enormous benefits of school trips for students and he wanted to make it easier for teachers to provide more young people with these exciting opportunities.

Fully accredited

Our ABTA bond means that school trips booked with us are financially protected, and our flight packages are ATOL protected too.

In addition, we're an Assured Member of the School Travel Forum, which demonstrates our commitment to prioritise the health and safety of our groups.

Plus, we've been awarded the Learning Outside the Classroom Quality Badge, which reflects our commitment to offering activities that are safe and beneficial to learning.

Prioritise health and safety

As an Assured Member of the School Travel Forum, we have taken responsibility for creating and implementing our own thorough Safety Management System, to ensure that all reasonable measures are taken so that clients are assured of a high level of safety on all of our tours.

Specialist help and support

We have many former teachers among us, including in our management team, and we believe that this helps us to fully understand the needs of teachers when arranging school trips.

Our Music Specialists are specialists in their area and know the destinations and music venues we offer extremely well, allowing them to advise on the suitability for each ensemble.

Family values

Despite our rapid growth over the past 35 years, we remain fiercely independent and Keith is still at the helm, supported by his wife, children and a dynamic and experienced team of school travel specialists.
